Allāh censures His Prophet & for Prohibiting Himself from what He has allowed for Him

In the Book of Vows, Al-Bukhāri recorded that 'Ubayd bin 'Umayr said that he heard 'Ā'ishah claiming that Allāh's Messenger used to stay for a period in the house of Zaynab bint Jaḥsh and drink honey in her house. (She said) "Ḥafṣah and I decided that when the Prophet entered upon either of us, we would say, I smell Maghāfīr<sup>[1]</sup> on you. Have you eaten Maghāfīr?' When he entered upon one of us, she said that to him. He replied (to her),

«No, but I drank honey in the house of Zaynab bint Jahsh, and I will never drink it again.»"

Then the following was revealed;

♦O Prophet! Why do you fobid that which Allāh has allowed to you? > up to,

<sup>[1]</sup> The author explains below.

♦If you both turn in repentance to Allāh, your hearts are indeed so inclined;

in reference to 'A'ishah and Hafsah.

♦And (remember) when the Prophet disclosed a matter in confidence to one of his wives,▶ which refers to this saying,

"But I have drunk honey." Ibrāhīm bin Mūsā said that Hishām said that it also meant his saying,

<sup>4</sup>I will not drink it anymore, I have taken an oath to that. Therefore, do not inform anybody about it.<sup>3</sup>[1]

Al-Bukhāri also recorded this Ḥadīth in the Book of Divorce; then he said, "Al-Maghāfīr is a type of sap, and in Ar-Rimth (a type of citrus) its taste is sweet..."

Al-Jawhari said, "The 'Urfut!' is a tree of the shrub variety, which secretes Maghfūr."

Muslim collected this Ḥadūth from 'Ā'ishah in the Book of Divorce in his Ṣaḥūḥ, and his wording is the same as Al-Bukhāri in the Book of Vows.<sup>[4]</sup>

In the Book of Divorce, Al-Bukhāri recorded that 'Ā'ishah said, "Allāh's Messenger liked sweets and honey. After performing the 'Aṣr prayer, he used to visit his wives, going close to them. So he went to Ḥafṣah, daughter of 'Umar, and stayed with her more than his usual stay. I ('Ā'ishah) became jealous and asked about that. It was said to me, 'A woman of her family sent her a small vessel of honey as a gift, and she gave a drink to Allāh's Messenger made from it.' I said, 'By Allāh, we will contrive a plot against him.' I said to Ṣawdah bint Zam'ah, 'When the Messenger visits you and draws close to you, say to him, 'Have you eaten Maghāfīr?' And when he says to you, 'No', then ask him, 'What is this odor?' He will say to you, 'Hafṣah has given me a drink of honey.' Then you should say to him, 'The honeybees might have eaten from Urfut, and I will also say the same to him. Ṣafiyyah, you should also say this.' Ṣawdah later said, 'It was under compulsion that I had decided to state that which you told me; soon, by Allāh, he was standing at my door.' So when Allāh's Messenger to came near her, she said, 'O Messenger of Allāh! Did you eat Maghāfīr?' He said, 'No.' She again said, 'Then what is this odor?' He said,

"Hafṣah gave me honey to drink." She said, The honeybees might have eaten from Urfut."

'Ā'ishah continued, "When he came to me I said the same to him. He then visited Ṣafiyyah and she also said similar to him. When he again visited Ḥafṣah, she said, 'O Messenger of Allāh, should I not give you that (drink)?' He said,

I do not need it. Sawdah said, By Allāh! We have prevented him from drinking honey.' I said to her, 'Keep quiet!' "[1] Muslim also recorded this Ḥadīth, [2] but this wording is from Al-Bukhāri.

In the narration of Muslim, 'Ā'ishah said, "The Messenger of Allāh su used to hate to have a bad odor coming from him" This is why they suggested to him that he ate Maghāfīr, because it causes a bad odor. When he said,

«No, I had some honey.» They said that the bees ate from a tree that is called Al-Urfut, which has Maghāfir gum, suggesting that this is the reason behind the bad odor they claimed was coming from him.

The latter narration, collected through 'Urwah from 'Ä'ishah, mentions that it was Ḥafṣah who gave the Prophet 繼 the honey.

In another narration collected from 'Ubayd bin 'Umayr, from 'Ā'ishah, it was Zaynab bint Jaḥsh who gave the honey to the Prophet É, while 'Ā'ishah and Ḥafṣah were the plotters. Allāh knows best. Some might say that they were two separate incidents. However, it is not likely that the Āyāt were revealed about both incidents, if indeed they were two separate incidents. Allāh knows best. A Ḥadīth that Imām Aḥmad collected in the Musnad mentions that 'Ā'ishah and Ḥafṣah were the plotters. Imām Aḥmad recorded that Ibn 'Abbās said, "I was eager to ask 'Umar about the two ladies among the wives of the Prophet É, about whom Allāh said,

Then I performed Hajj along with Umar, and on our way back from Hajj he went aside (to relieve himself). I also went aside along with him carrying a tumbler of water. When he finished and returned, I poured water on his hands from the tumbler and he performed ablution. I said, 'O Commander of the faithful! Who were the two ladies among the wives of the Prophet H, to whom Allāh said,

⟨If you two turn in repentance to Allāh your hearts are indeed so inclined⟩?'

'Umar said, I am astonished at your question, O Ibn 'Abbās.'" - Az-Zuhrī (a subnarrator) said that 'Umar did not like the question, but he still answered it, saying that they were 'Ā'ishah and Hafsah.

"Then 'Umar went on relating the story and said, 'We, the people of Quraysh, used to have authority over our women. But when we came to live with the Anṣār, we noticed that the Anṣāri women had the upper hand over their men, so our women started acquiring the habits of the Anṣāri women. At that time, I was residing at the house of Umayyah bin Zayd, in Al-'Awāli. Once I got angry with my wife, and she talked back to me; I disliked her answering me back. She said, 'Why do you dislike me talking back to you? By Allāh, the wives of the Prophet se talk back to him, and some of them may not speak with him for the whole day, until nightfall.'

Then I went to Ḥafṣah and asked her, 'Do you talk back to Allāh's Messenger?' She said, 'Yes.' I asked, 'Does any of you keep Allāh's Messenger angry all day long, until night?' She replied, 'Yes.' I said, 'Whoever among you does this is a ruined, losing person! Doesn't she fear that Allāh may get angry for the anger of His Messenger and, thus, she will be ruined? Don't ask Allāh's Messenger too many things, and don't retort him in any case. Demand from me whatever you like, and don't be tempted to imitate your neighbor, for she is more beautiful than you, and more beloved to Allāh's Messenger than you.' He meant 'Ā'ishah.

I, and an Anṣāri neighbor of mine used to visit the Prophet in turns. He used to go one day, and I another day. When I went I would bring him the news of what had happened that day regarding the revelation and when he went, he used to do the same for me.

In those days it was rumored that the Ghassān (tribe) were preparing their horses to invade us. My companion went and returned to us at night and knocked at my door. I came out to him. He said that a grave thing happened. I asked him, 'What is it? Have Ghassān come?' He replied that it was worse and more serious than that, adding that Allāh's Messenger that divorced all his wives. I said, 'Hafsah is a ruined loser! I expected that would happen some day.'

So I dressed myself and I performed the Subh prayer. I went to Hafsah and found her weeping. I asked her, 'Has Alläh's Messenger divorced all of you?' She replied, I don't know. He is there alone in the upper room.' I went to the upper room and asked a black slave of the Prophet to ask for his permission to see me, and the boy went in and then came out saying, I mentioned you to him and he remained silent.' I then went out and came to the Minbar and found a group of people around it and some of them were weeping.

I sat with them for some time, but could not endure the situation. So, I requested to the boy, 'Will you get the permission for 'Umar?' He went in and then came out saying, I mentioned you to him, but he did not reply.' So, I went to Minbar and sat with the people who were sitting by the Minbar, but I could not bear the situation, so I went to the boy again and said, 'Will you get the permission for 'Umar?' He went in and brought the same reply as before. When I was leaving, behold, he called me saying, 'Allāh's Messenger has granted you permission.' So, I entered the Prophet's room, greeted him with the Salām and saw him lying on a mat without bedding on it, and the mat had left its mark on the body of the Prophet .

I said, 'Have you divorced your wives, O Allāh's Messenger?' He raised his eyes to me and replied no. I said, 'Allāhu Akbar. O Allāh's Messenger! We, the people of Quraysh used to have the upper hand over our women. But when we came to Al-Madīnah, we found a people whose women had the upper hand over them. Our women started learning this behavior from them. Once, I got angry with my wife, and she talked back to me. I disliked that behavior from her and she said, 'Why do you dislike that I talk back to you? By Allāh, the Prophet's wives talk back to him and one of them would ignore him the whole day, until the night.' I said to her, 'Whoever does this among them is the ruined loser! Does she feel safe from Allāh getting angry with her on account of His Messenger's anger? In that case, she would be ruined.' On that the Prophet smiled.

I then said, 'O Allāh's Messenger! I went to Ḥafṣah and said to her, 'Do not be tempted to imitate your companion ('Ā'ishah) for she is more beautiful than you and more beloved to the Prophet.' The Prophet smiled again. When I saw him smiling, I said, 'Does the Messenger feel calm?' He said, 'Yes.' So, I sat down and cast a glance at the room, and by Allāh, I couldn't see anything of importance, except three hides. I said, 'Invoke Allāh, O Allāh's Messenger, to make your followers prosperous, for the Persians and the Byzantines have been made prosperous and given worldly luxuries, even though they do not worship Allāh.' The Prophet sat upright and said,

«O Ibn Al-Khaṭṭāb! Do you have any doubt? These people have been given rewards of their good deeds in this world only.»

I asked the Prophet 26, 'Please beg Allāh's forgiveness for me,

O Allah's Messenger.' The Prophet & swore that he would not go to his wives for one month, because of his severe anger towards them, until Allah the Exalted and Most Honored censured him."[1] Al-Bukhāri, Muslim, At-Tirmidhi and An-Nasa'i also collected this Hadith using various chains of narration. [2] Al-Bukhāri and Muslim also collected it from Ibn 'Abbās, who said, "For a whole year, I was eager to ask 'Umar bin Al-Khattab about an Ayah. However, I hesitated out of respect for him. Once, he went on a Hajj trip and I accompanied him. On our way back, he stopped to relieve himself behind some trees of Arak. I stopped until he finished and then walked along with him and asked him, 'O Leader of the believers! Who are the two women who helped each other (or plotted) against the Prophet 22?' "[3] This is the narration that Al-Bukhāri collected, while Muslim recorded that Ibn 'Abbās asked, "Who are the two women about whom Allah the Exalted said,

&but if you help one another against him, ≥?"

'Umar replied, "Ā'ishah and Ḥafsah." Muslim mentioned the rest of the Hadīth.

Muslim also recorded that Ibn 'Abbās said that 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb said to him, "When Allāh's Messenger stayed away from his wives, I entered the Masjid and found people striking the ground with pebbles. They said, 'Allāh's Messenger has divorced his wives.' That occurred before Hijāb was commanded. I said to myself, I must investigate this news today.'"

So he mentioned the Ḥadīth in which he went to 'Ā'ishah and Ḥafṣah and admonished them. He then said, I went in and found Rabāḥ, the servant of Allāh's Messenger ﷺ, sitting on a window sill. I called, 'O Rabāḥ, seek permission for me from Allāh's Messenger.'"

He then mentioned the story as we mentioned above. Umar continued, "I said, 'O Messenger of Allāh, what trouble do you feel from your wives? If you have divorced them, verily Allāh is with you, His angels, Jibrīl, Mīkāl, I, Abu Bakr and the rest of believers are with you.'

Often, when I talked, all praise is due to Allāh, I hoped that Allāh would testify to the words that I uttered. And so the  $\bar{A}y\bar{a}t$  of option<sup>[1]</sup> was revealed. Allāh said,

Maybe his Lord, if he divorces you, will give him in your place wives better than you, and,

♦but if you help one another against him, then verily, Allāh is his Protector, and Jibrīl, and the righteous among the believers; and after that the angels are his helpers.

I said, 'Messenger of Allāh, have you divorced them?' He said, 'No.' I stood at the door of the Masjid and called out at the top of my voice, 'The Messenger of Allāh has not divorced his wives.' It was on this occasion that this Āyah was revealed,

When any matter pertaining to peace or alarm comes to them, they broadcast it; whereas, if they would refer it to the Messenger and those who have been entrusted with authority among them, those of them who are engaged in obtaining intelligence would indeed know (what to do with) it. ▶ (4:83)

It was I who understood (and properly investigated) this matter." [2]

Similar was said by Sa'īd bin Jubayr, 'Ikrimah, Muqātil bin Ḥayyān, Aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk and others.<sup>[3]</sup> The Āyah,

(and the righteous among the believers;) refers to Abu Bakr and Umar. Al-Ḥasan Al-Baṣri added

Al-Bukhāri recorded that Anas said, "Umar said, The wives of the Prophet sawere all jealous for his affection, and I said to them,

Maybe his Lord, if he divorces you, will give him instead of you, wives better than you.

Thereafter, this  $\bar{A}yah$  was revealed.' "[1] We mentioned before that Umar said statements that were confirmed by the Qur'ān, such as about the revelation about  $Hij\bar{a}b$  [see 33:53] and the captive idolators after the battle of Badr [see 8:67]. Umar's suggestion to take the Station of Ibrāhīm as a place for prayer and Allāh revealed this  $\bar{A}yah$ ;

♦And take you the Maqām (station) of Ibrāhīm as a place of prayer. ▶ (2:125)

Ibn Abi Ḥātim recorded that Anas said that 'Umar bin Al-Khaṭṭāb said, "I heard news that the Mothers of the faithful had a dispute with the Prophet . So I advised them, saying, Either stop bothering Allāh's Messenger or Allāh might provide him better wives than you.' When I was talking to the last one among the Mothers of the faithful, she said, 'O 'Umar! Is it that the Messenger of Allāh cannot advise his wives, so that you interfere between him and them?' I stopped upon hearing this from her, but Allāh revealed;

Maybe his Lord, if he divorces you, will give him instead of you, wives better than you, submitting, believers, obedient, worshipping, Sā'iḥāt, previously married and virgins.

The wife mentioned here was Umm Salamah, and she is the one who advised Umar to stop interfering between the Prophet and his wives, as is confirmed in Saḥīḥ Al-Bukhāri. [1] Allāh's statement,

Teaching One's Family the Religion and Good Behavior 'Ali bin Abi Talhah reported from Ibn 'Abbās;

⟨Protect yourselves and your families against a Fire (Hell)⟩

He said, "Work in the obedience of Allāh, avoid disobedience of Allāh and order your families to remember Allāh, then Allāh will save you from the Fire."

Mujāhid also commented on:

♦ Protect yourselves and your families against a Fire (Hell) saying, "Have Taqwā of Allāh and order your family to have Taqwā of Him." Qatādah said, "He commands obedience to Allāh, to not disobey Allāh, he orders his family to obey His orders and helps them to act upon His orders. When one sees disobedience, he stops them and forbids them from doing it." Similar was said by Aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk and Muqātil; "It is an obligation for the Muslim to teach his near family members, and his male and female slaves what Allāh has made obligatory for them and what Allāh has forbidden for them."

There is a Ḥadīth that confirms the meaning of this Āyah. Aḥmad, Abu Dāwud and At-Tirmidhi recorded that Ar-Rabī' bin Sabrah said that his father said that the Messenger of Allāh 幾 said,

"Order the children to pray when they reach the age of seven and when they reach the age of ten, discipline them for (not performing) it."

This is the narration that Abu Dāwud collected; At-Tirmidhi said, "This Ḥadīth is Ḥasan." [2]

Fuel for Hell and a Description of its Angels

Allāh said,

(whose fuel is men and stones,) indicating that the Children of Adam will be fuel for the Fire that will feed it,

 $\{and stones\}$  in reference to the idols that were worshipped, just as Allāh said in another  $\bar{A}yah$ ,

(Certainly you and that which you are worshipping now besides Allāh, are (but) fuel for Hell!) (21:98)

'Abdullāh bin Mas'ūd, Mujāhid, Abu Ja'far Al-Bāqir and As-Suddi said that these are sulfur stones that are more putrid than rotten corpses, according to Mujāhid. [3] Allāh's statement.

♦over which are (appointed) angels stern (and) severe, means, their nature of behavior is stern, because the mercy has been taken out of their hearts for those who disbelieve in Allāh,

(severe) meaning, their structure is powerful, strong and frightening,

(who disobey not the commands they receive from Allāh, but do that which they are commanded.)

meaning, whatever Allāh commands them, they rush to obey Him, without delay for even a twinkling of an eye. They are able to fulfill the command; they are called Az-Zabāniyah, meaning, the keepers and guards of Hell, may Allāh give us shelter from them.

No Excuse will be accepted from the Disbeliever on the Day of Resurrection

Allāh said,

♦O you who disbelieve! Make no excuses this Day! You are being requited only for what you used to do.▶

meaning, on the Day of Resurrection, the disbeliever will be told, "Do not offer any excuse this Day, because it will not be accepted from you; you will only be recompensed for what you used to do. Today, you will receive the punishment for your actions."

Encouraging sincere Repentance

Allāh the Exalted said,

♦O you who believe! Turn to Allāh with sincere repentance!♦
meaning, a true, firm repentance that erases the evil sins that preceded it and mend the shortcoming of the repenting person, encouraging and directing him to quit the evil that he used to do. Allah said,

(It may be that your Lord will expiate from you your sins, and admit you into Gardens under which rivers flow)

And when Allah says, "it may be," it means He shall.

(the Day that Allāh will not disgrace the Prophet and those who believe with him) meaning, on the Day of Resurrection, Allāh will not disgrace those who believed in the Prophet 畿,

♦Their light will run forward before them and in their right hands.▶

as we explained in Sūrat Al-Ḥadīd,[1]

(They will say: "Our Lord! Keep perfect our light for us and grant us forgiveness. Verily, You are Able to do all things.")

Mujāhid, Aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk and Al-Ḥasan Al-Baṣri and other said, "This is the statement that the believers will say on the Day of Resurrection, when they witness the light of the hypocrites being extinguished." [2]

Imām Aḥmad recorded that a man from the tribe of Banu Kinānah said, "I prayed behind the Messenger of Allāh said during the year of the Conquest (of Makkah), and heard him say,

"O Allāh! Please, do not disgrace me on the Day of Resurrection." 131

- $\( \)\( 10. \) Allāh sets forth an example for those who disbelieve: the wife of Nūḥ and the wife of Lūṭ. They were under two of our righteous servants, but they both betrayed them. So, they availed them not against Allāh and it was said: "Enter the Fire along with those who enter!" }

The Command for Jihād against the Disbelievers and the Hypocrites

Allāh the Exalted orders His Messenger at to perform Jihād against the disbelievers and hypocrites, the former with weapons and armaments and the later by establishing Allāh's legislated penal code,

(and be severe against them) meaning, in this life,

(their abode will be Hell, and worst indeed is that destination.)
that is, in the Hereafter.

The Disbeliever shall never benefit from His Believing Relative on the Day of Resurrection

Alläh the exalted said,

*Allāh sets forth an example for those who disbelieve* meaning, the disbelievers who live together in this life with Muslims, their mixing and mingling with Muslims will not help the disbelievers, nor will it avail them with Allāh, until and unless they gain faith in their hearts. Then Allāh mentioned the parable, saying,

♦the wife of Nūḥ and the wife of Lūṭ. They were under two of our righteous servants, means, they were the wives of two of Allāh's Messengers and were their companions by day and night, eating with them and sleeping with them, as much as any marriage contains of interaction between spouses. However,

♦they both betrayed them. → meaning, in the faith, they did not adhere to the faith sent through their husbands nor accepted their message. Therefore, all the intimate knowledge of their husbands neither helped them nor prevented punishment, hence Allāh's statement.

♦So, they availed them not against Allāh≽ means, because their wives were disbelievers.

﴿وَنِيلَ﴾

{and it was said} meaning, to these wives,

⟨Enter the Fire along with those who enter!⟩
The part of the Äyah that reads,

♦but they both betrayed them does not pertain to committing illegal sexual intercourse, but to refusing to accept the religion. Surely, the wives of the Prophets were immune from committing illegal sexual intercourse on account of the honor that Allāh has granted His Prophets, as we explained in Sūrat An-Nūr. [1]

Al-'Awfi reported from Ibn 'Abbās, "They betrayed them by not following their religion. The wife of Prophet Nūḥ used to expose his secrets, informing his oppressive people whenever any person embraced the faith with Nūḥ. As for the wife of

This was briefly mentioned in volume seven, in the Tafsīr of Sūrat

An-Nūr (24:26).

Prophet Lūt, she used to inform the people of the city (Sodom), who committed the awful sexual act (sodomy), whenever a guest was entertained by her husband."<sup>[1]</sup> Aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk reported that Ibn 'Abbās said, "No wife of a Prophet ever committed adultery and fornication. Rather, they betrayed them by refusing to follow their religion."<sup>[2]</sup> Similar was said by 'Ikrimah, Sa'id bin Jubayr, Aḍ-Ḍaḥḥāk and others.<sup>[3]</sup>

- €11. And Allāh has set forth an example for those who believe: the wife of Fir'awn, when she said: "My Lord! Build for me a home with You in Paradise, and save me from Fir'awn and his work, and save me from the people who are wrongdoers.
- €12. And Maryam, the daughter of 'Imrān who guarded her chastity (private part). And We breathed into it through Our Rūḥ, and she testified to the truth of her Lords Kalimāt, and His Kutub, and she was of the Qānitīn.

The Disbelievers can cause no Harm to the Believers

This is a parable that Allāh made of the believers, in that, if they needed to, their association with the disbelievers will not harm them. Allāh the Exalted said,

Let not the believers take the disbelievers as protecting friends instead of the believers, and whoever does that, will never be helped by Allāh in any way, except you indeed fear a danger from them. ▶ (3:28) people of the earth and the most disbelieving. By Allāh! His wife was not affected by her husband's disbelief, because she obeyed her Lord. Therefore, let it be known that Allāh is the Just Judge Who will not punish anyone except for their own sins." [1]

Ibn Jarīr recorded that Sulaymān said, "The wife of Fir'awn was tortured under the sun and when Fir'awn would finish the torture session, the angels would shade her with their wings. She was shown her house in Paradise." [2]

Ibn Jarīr said that Al-Qāsim bin Abi Bazzah said, "Fir'awn's wife used to ask, 'Who prevailed?' When she was told, 'Mūsā and Hārūn prevailed', she said, 'I believe in the Lord of Mūsā and Hārūn.' Fir'awn sent his aides to her and said to them, 'Find the biggest stone. If she insists on keeping her faith, throw the stone on her, otherwise she is my wife. When they came to her, she looked up to the sky and was able to see her house in Paradise. She persisted on the faith and her soul was then captured. The stone was thrown on her lifeless body." This is the meaning of her statement,

€My Lord! Build for me a home with You in Paradise, and save me from Fir'awn and his work, ▶ means, 'deliver me from him, because I am innocent of his actions,'

{and save me from the people who are wrongdoers.}

Her name was Āsiyah bint Muzāḥim, may Allāh be pleased with her.

Allāh said.

And Maryam, the daughter of 'Imrān who guarded her chastity (private part).

meaning, who protected and purified her honor, by being chaste and free of immorality,

«And We breathed into it (private part) through Our Rūḥ, → meaning, through the angel Jibrīl. Allāh sent the angel Jibrīl to Maryam, and he came to her in the shape of a man in every respect. Allāh commanded him to blow into a gap of her garment and that breath went into her womb through her private part; this is how Īsā was conceived. This is why Allāh said here.

♦And We breathed into it through Our Rūḥ, and she testified to the truth of her Lords Kalimāt, and His Kutub, meaning His decree and His legislation.

€and she was of the Qānitīn.

Imām Aḥmad recorded that Ibn 'Abbās said, "The Messenger of Allāh & drew four lines on the ground and said,

"Do you know what these lines represent?"

They said, 'Allah and His Messenger know best.' He a said,

The best among the women of Paradise are Khadījah bint Khuwaylid, Fāṭimah bint Muḥammad, Maryam bint 'Imrān and Āsiyah bint Muzāḥim, wife of Fir'awn. 111

It is confirmed in the Two Ṣaḥīḥs from Abu Mūsā Al-Ash'ari that the Messenger of Allāh 纖 said,

«كَمُلَ مِنَ الرِّجَالِ كَثِيرٌ وَلَمْ يَكْمُلُ مِنَ النِّسَاءِ إِلَّا آسِيَةُ امْرَأَةُ فِرْعَوْنَ، وَمَرْيَمُ ابْنَةُ عِمْرَانَ، وَخَدِيجَةُ بِنْتُ خُوَيْلِدٍ، وَإِنَّ فَضْلَ عَانِشَةَ عَلَى النِّسَاءِ كَفَضْلِ النَّرِيدِ عَلَى

<sup>a</sup>Many men have reached the level of perfection, but none among women have reached this level except Āsiyah – Fir'awn's wife, Maryam-the daughter of 'Imrān, and Khadījah-the daughter of Khuwaylid. And no doubt, the superiority of 'Ā'ishah to other women is like the superiority of Tharīd to other meals.<sup>[1]</sup>

In my book, Al-Bidāyah wan-Nihāyah, [2] I have mentioned these Ḥadīths using their various chains of narration in relating the story of Prophet Isā and his mother Maryam, peace be upon them, all praise be to Allāh.

This is the end of the Tafsīr of Sūrat At-Taḥrīm, all thanks and praise are due to Allāh.
